

Introduction to ACCA

Wes Davis

Director, Quality Assured Program

The Air Conditioning Contractors of America (ACCA)

The only nationwide association representing the technical, educational and policy interests of U.S. businesses that design, install and maintain indoor environmental systems

Antecedents

- National Warm Air Heating and Air Conditioning Assn. (1914)
- Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Contractors of America (1946)
- National Environmental Systems Contractors Assn. (1968)
- Air Conditioning Contractors of America (1969)

Mission Statement

“To assist and enable
HVACR contractors to acquire, serve and satisfy their customers.”

Membership

- About 5,000 Members
- In all 50 States and 12 foreign countries
- 43 Chapters across America

Strategic Alliance

- Joint Operations
  - ENERGY STAR for Qualified New Homes
  - RESNET Home Performance Teams (Existing homes)
  - Existing Residential Building Performance Improvement (ANSI-intended standard)
  - Participation in current annual meetings
- RESNET Committees
  - Technical
  - Strategic Planning

Future Goals*

- Co-locate Annual Conferences
- Offering opportunities for incremental improvement in skill sets
- Mutual technical support
- Membership support

* Per MOU dated 16 September 2010

Wes Davis

Director, Quality Assured Program
Air Conditioning Contractors of America

www.acca.org/qa

wes.davis@acca.org

(703) 824-8877

