2

Able to access untapped resources for energy code compliance inspections

You Can Feel Secure with Verification of Energy Code Compliance!

Inspectors have demonstrated knowledge through certifications from RESNET and ICC

ICC certifications and HERS Raters subject to stringent RESNET Quality Assurance oversight

Inspectors credentialed from RESNET and ICC through new IECC/HERS Compliance Specialist designation for HERS Raters that pass the ICC Residential Energy Inspector/Plan Examiner certification exam

Transparency through new Code Official Dashboard via the RESNET National Buildings Registry (Coming Soon)

You Can Save Time on Energy Code Review and Approval!

A recent US Department of Energy commissioned study, conducted with assistance from ICC, found that code officials spent an average of 4.5 hours reviewing performance compliance submittals. When IECC/HERS Compliance Specialists conduct performance energy code compliance, code officials can quickly review and approve submittals knowing that qualified individuals certified by ICC in Residential Inspections and Plan Reviews were behind them.
