2022 HERS® Rating Activity

Average HERS® Index Score of homes rated in 2022

42%

More efficient than a home built in 2006

72%

More efficient than a home built in the 1970s

$253M

Annual energy savings

1.544M

Tons in annual carbon savings 301,966

Equivalent to number of passenger cars taken off the road for

HERS_{H20®} Rating Activity

2022 Highlights

Average HERS_{H2O} Score of

Homes Rated in 2022

homes milestone

Passage by Congress of the

3.6 MILLION HERS Rated

Achieved the

that qualifies more veterans and service members to purchase energy

Veterans Home Energy Savings Act

efficient homes

Large national production builders as part of their ESG reporting using their homes' HERS Index Scores and WaterSense programs showing a 45% reduction in water saved, or an average of 44,000 gallons annually credibility to RESNET's HERSH20®

Las Vegas water study adds per household

assurance review

RESNET launched

the developing of the

RESNET completes field quality

Assurance Providers

RESNET prevailed in federal court on enforcement of RESNET Standards of all accredited RESNET Quality

RESNET Board authorizes investigating

HERS Modeler Certification

carbon in Homes

standard to calculate the embedded

RESNET Signs MOU with Phius

Raters to become Phius Certified to encourage Certified RESNET HERS

the 45L Tax Credit and included a 10-year extension of the credit

Reduction Act that reformed

Passage by Congress of Inflation

RESNET Carbon Index®

Launching the new bond market for single family energy efficient Homes based on HERS Ratings continues to grow

Mortgage back securities green homebuilder to commit to RESNET HERS_{H20®} and EPA's WaterSense program in drought-

KB Home becoming the first national stricken Arizona, California, and Nevada

Home Certification Organization (HCO) for the California ENERGY STAR Certified Homes Program

Environmental Protection Agency as a

RESNET hosts energy code and energy code compliance

RESNET Approved by the Leadership Forum on HERS® raters

RESNET HERS Raters

Trade Foundation

RESNET Board

RESNET Signs MOU with Building

Expands Membership to all certified Successfully hosted for rating industry workforce development

2nd Virtual RESNET Building

Performance Conference

2022 Budget Statement

$3,499,061 $3,372,127 $3,025,862 Expenses Net Assets

3% Suppliers Advisory Board

RESNET receives a clean bill of health in independent financial audit

9% Testing

1% Membership

Revenue

17% Management & General

17% Conference

1% Investments 7% Conference 79% 66% Accreditation &

RESNET Revenues 2022

Registry Fees

RESNET Expenses 2022

Program

Delivery