

RESNET® Speaker and Presentation Guidelines

To present the highest quality learning experience for participants and to comply with anti-trust laws, RESNET® requires that all speakers comply with the following guidelines for the RESNET® events:

- Speakers must register for the event(s) they are presenting at and pay applicable fees unless otherwise stated
- In no way may speakers or attendees discuss or show the prices your company will charge customers for products or services even if they ask. Please review the RESNET® Antitrust Policy for more information.
- Content of the session must:
 - Have content that is honest and accurate
 - Be original, or speaker has obtained the necessary permission for the use of the materials and content
 - Not discuss or show discounts, terms, or conditions of sale, warranty terms, profits and/or profit margins, shares of the market, bids or the intent to bid, rejection or termination of customers, sales territories, or markets.
 - Does not discuss administrative or disciplinary action by RESNET® against a particular member, or enforcement of The RESNET® Code of Ethics.
 - Not used as a sales pitch for your specific products or services. In your introduction, you can explain your company and work, but your session should be a learning experience and not a commercial.
- Do not propose or discuss any proposal or engage in any activity, which is intended to have the effect of producing an adverse economic impact on any competing companies in the industry.

Speaker will use their best efforts to perform or will notify RESNET® immediately if Speaker cannot perform the speaker's obligations under this Agreement. In the event of failure or refusal of speaker to perform speaker's obligations under this Agreement (other than failure to perform for reasons beyond Speaker's control), all costs, charges, and expenses RESNET® incurs shall be part of the damages to be paid by Speaker to RESNET® as a result of such failure or refusal to perform, including but not limited to attorneys' fees and expenses.
