

2026 RESNET® Conference Speaker and Presentation Guidelines

Thank you for your commitment to present a session at the upcoming 2026 RESNET Conference. Please review our guidelines below.

- Speakers must register for the 2026 RESNET Conference and pay applicable fees unless otherwise stated.
 - Register here
 - Speaker registration cost: $425
- In no way may speakers or attendees discuss or show the prices your company charges customers for products or services, even if they ask. Please review the RESNET® Antitrust Policy for more information.
- Content of the session must:
 - Be honest and accurate.
 - Be original, or speaker has obtained the necessary permission for the use of the materials and content.
 - Not discuss or show discounts, terms, or conditions of sale, warranty terms, profits and/or profit margins, shares of the market, bids or the intent to bid, rejection or termination of customers, sales territories, or markets.
 - Does not discuss administrative or disciplinary action by RESNET against a particular member, or enforcement of the RESNET Code of Ethics.
 - Not used as a sales pitch for your specific products or services. In your introduction, you can explain your company and work, but your session should be a learning experience and not a commercial.
- Do not propose or discuss any proposal or engage in any activity, which is intended to have the effect of producing an adverse economic impact on any competing companies in the industry.

Speakers will use their best efforts to perform or will notify RESNET immediately if they cannot perform the speaker's obligations under this Agreement. In the event of failure or refusal of the speaker to perform the speaker's obligations under this Agreement (other than failure to perform for reasons beyond the speaker's control), all costs, charges, and expenses RESNET incurs shall be part of the damages to be paid by the speaker to RESNET as a result of such failure or refusal to perform, including but not limited to attorneys' fees and expenses.
