

Adopted by the RESNET® Board of Directors September 19, 2023

The organization's strengths are defined via the assets it has developed over many successful decades. Those key assets are:

RESNET Key Assets

Industry recognized Gold Standard for Quality Assurance (QA) of Ratings and automated QA system

Legacy of 25+ years' experience with nearly 4 million homes rated and counting

Highly skilled and dedicated certified RESNET Raters

Highly qualified and experienced staff with very low turnover

Partnerships within industry and with stakeholders

The diverse makeup of the RESNET Board

RESNET National Buildings Registry

Healthy financial reserves to invest in new opportunities to increase rater business opportunities and enhance quality assurance

Recognized as energy metric for Environmental, Sustainability and Governance (ESG) reporting

National conference to build industry cohesion

Nationally recognized consensus standards that are referenced in the International Energy Conservation Code, EPA's ENERGY STAR and WaterSense programs and DOE's Zero Energy Ready Homes program